ABOUT US DION'S PIZZA

At Dion's® we provide great food and a place for people to relax and connect with family and friends. We create ease, simplicity, and connection amidst the hustle and bustle of busy lives. We hold ourselves to an expectation of authenticity and excellence. Our employees, customers, and community members are partners in success. Together we develop opportunities to grow and thrive as a company, as individuals, and as a community.

HISTORY

Jon Patten and Bill Scott came to Albuquerque from Michigan in 1978, with dreams of opening a Greek restaurant fit for the gods.

After purchasing a small place called New York Pizza, Jon and Bill began to carry out the plans of turning the pizzeria into a Greek eatery (say that five times fast). While waiting for the equipment to make gyros and baklava, the previous owner taught them how to make pizza so they could start serving hungry customers immediately.

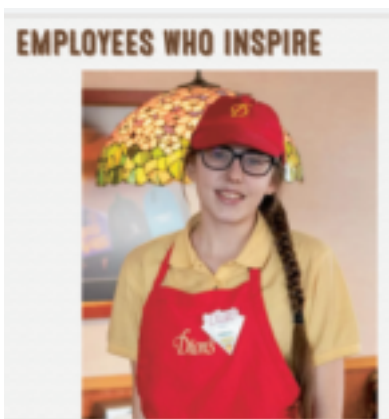

Bill and Jon had the perfect name for their pizza-for-now-but-really-Greek-restaurant: "Dionysus", after the Greek god of the grape harvest and wine. But when it came to making the sign, they balked at the price. Inflation had skyrocketed since ancient Greek times. They asked the sign maker what they could do to make their sign less expensive. He laughed and replied, "Well, you could knock off a few letters." And that's just what Jon and Bill did. From that moment on, their restaurant became known as Dion's®.

The people.

That is Hannah Wilson's favorite thing about working at Dion's.

A team member at our University and Gibson location in Albuquerque, Hannah lists relationships with customers, the familial spirit, and the team environment she can expect, every day as her top workplace joys.

The feeling is mutual. Hannah is appreciated and admired by her crew, earning her our latest "Employees Who Inspire" honor.

SALES & SERVICE MANAGER 2018 RANKINGS

1st FRANCISCO LOPEZ ORTEGA
(03/23/15)
Los Angeles Industrial Plant

The #1 spot goes to the same gentleman that held #1 in the first half of the year, the one and only Francisco Lopez! Francisco posted 285 points, 5.9% AR, $32 NBC average, and a 207 CV score to name just a few of his monumental numbers. You dominated 2018 Francisco! If anybody knows Francisco, you know his mild manor is backed up by hard work, strong customer loyalty and the respect of his veteran CSR team. We learned recently that Francisco is the youngest kid of 7 and the first to graduate college, attending a very hard to get into University of Santa Barbra. Lastly, to add to 2018, Francisco gained his permanent US citizenship in December. 2018 was a monumental year for Francisco, he should be proud for so many reasons.

2nd CAMERON BATES
(03/05/12)
Irvine Plant

Moving from #5 in the first part of 2018 to end the year at #2 is Cameron Bates! Cameron runs a tight ship in our Irvine plant and seems to be trending to the #1 spot. He is a force to be reckoned with, posting 273 total points, 111% revenue, 208 CV points (the only SSM with 208 points and 100% SOP. Cameron has the respect of his CSRs, the loyalty of his customers and the desire to win. Go for #1 in 2019 Cameron!

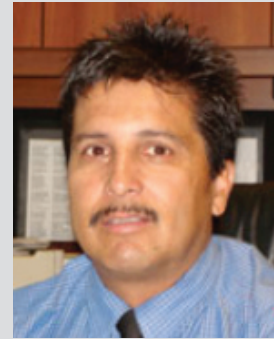

3rd TOM STILLWAGON
(07/28/80)
Retired (01/11/19)
Indio Service Center

We're VERY happy to find Prudential's most recent retiree Tom Stillwagon as the #3 SSM of the year. Tom was hired in 1980 and retired at the end of 2018, after 38 years with the company, Tom will be missed. If you knew Tom, you liked Tom. He always had a smile on his face and defined what it means to be a team player. Starting his career as a CSR that won numerous CSR of the year awards, then Route Manager, SSM, and finally Service Center Manager for our Indio location. He will be missed by all those who worked with him. May your retirement bless you with good health and lots of fun Tom... no more AR calls for you! Enjoy your retirement in Mississippi.

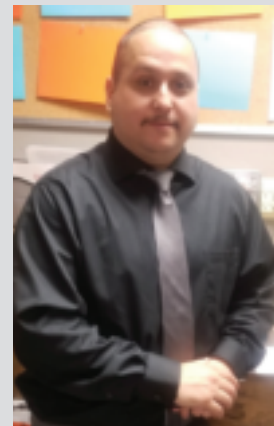

SPECIAL SHOUT OUT!

SPECIAL SHOUT OUT TO THE TOP 5 SSMS:

#4 STEVE HERNANDEZ
(08/20/01) from the Prescott Service Center. Steve proves again why Prudential has market dominance in the northern Arizona territory. Steve's team has always done well and has always been a well-run service center serviced by our Phoenix plant. Steve seems to have found the formula to get his name in the top 10 year after year after year after year. When will it end? We hope never.

#5 DAVID NIETO
(10/11/10) who ranked 2nd in the first half of the year pulls in the #5 spot. David posted an impressive 6.3% AR, 109% revenue percentage, and 202 points on the CV/ renewals. We challenged David on the last SSM Ranking Report email to go from silver to gold at the end of 2018... looks like next year you will have to get your gold. Regardless, well done David, back to back Ranking Reports in the top 5! Fresno gains tremendously from your awesome results.

Now it's 2019 and you have a clean slate to start over. Can you reach the top 10? Take a few minutes to reflect on the images above. They represent personal improvement - ask yourself how you can be more efficient. It's not always about working harder, it's about working smarter. For those of you at the bottom of the list, I dare you to call up a top 10 SSM and have them mentor you in the early part of 2019...it will go a long way in your personal success.

PROFIT SHARING PLAN

Prudential Overall Supply Profit Sharing and Retirement Plan was started by John D. Clark on January 1, 1958. Profit Sharing was a new concept in those days and there were few companies in any industry that had such a plan.

In 1984, the Company added a 401(K) plan, known at Prudential as the "Blue Man" account, which allows plan participants to contribute an annual percentage of their earnings on a before tax basis to the trust. The Company contribution matches 50% of the participant's contribution up to 5%. Many employees have enjoyed a very secure retirement in part due to the POS Profit Sharing Program.

The profit Sharing Meeting is attended by every eligible employee in the company.

PRUDENTIAL OVERALL SUPPLY RELEASES 2019 CLEAN GREEN SUSTAINABILITY DOCUMENT

IRVINE, CA – February 9, 2019 – Prudential Overall Supply, an industry leader in reusable image work apparel and related textiles, today announced the release of its 2019 Clean Green Sustainability document.

Prudential's Chairman of the Board, Dan Clark comments, "Since our Company's beginning in 1932, one thing that has remained the same is Prudential Overall Supply's commitment to providing reusable textile products and services. These reusable solutions have been instrumental in helping preserve the scarce resources that we all share. Today, reusable textiles continue to be a better environmental alternative compared to disposable products. This is especially true when comparing Prudential's large scale laundry process versus home wash."

ASSOCIATION HONORS PRUDENTIAL OVERALL SUPPLY FOR INDUSTRY-LEADING SUSTAINABLE PRACTICES

ALEXANDRIA, VA – April 22, 2019—TRSA, the Association for Linen, Uniform and Facility Services, has bestowed its Clean Green Innovation Award upon Prudential Overall Supply, the Irvine-based industry leader in reusable image work apparel and related textiles.

TRSA hailed the company for pioneering and maintaining the association's Clean Green certification, which the company received in 2012. Long heralded for exemplary performance in conserving resources and controlling discharges, Prudential was the first chain industrial laundry operation to be honored with the designation.

The award acknowledged that throughout the early 2000s, as the industry developed benchmarks for measuring such efforts, Prudential proved its above-average capabilities in minimizing a laundry's carbon footprint.

The company was recognized as a vocal proponent of the linen, uniform and facility services industry, noting in its own promotion every industrial laundry's value in providing businesses with "greener" solutions than alternative approaches they might procure. Uniform service competes with home washing of employee uniforms, which requires more water and energy per garment; and using paper wipers, which are more detrimental to the environment than cloth shop and foodservice towels.

TRSA's Clean Green Innovation Award honors leadership in the industry in reducing environmental impact, aligned as recognized by TRSA members for adherence to best management practices (BMPs) detailed in the Clean Green standard. These BMPs comprise the environmental standard for laundries of ASTM International. That organization is renowned for nearly 120 years of involving top technical experts, scientists and environmental professionals in developing and delivering voluntary consensus standards unparalleled in building customer confidence in product and service quality.

ABOUT TRSA

TRSA (www.trsa.org) represents and serves the linen, uniform and facility services industry, which supplies, launders and maintains linens, uniforms, towels, walk-off mats and other products. These help businesses (including retailers, manufacturers, healthcare facilities and restaurants), government and other organizations enhance their image and provide clean, safe environments for their employees and customers. Most Americans benefit at least once per week from the hygiene and safety of products provided to the industry's customers.

PRUDENTIAL ENTERS INTO FIVE-YEAR PARTNERSHIP WITH CLM

Prudential Overall Supply (POS) recently approved a long-term partnership with Consolidated Laundry Machinery (CLM) that includes the purchase of CLM's latest dryer technology for Prudential's many industrial plants and growing Cleanroom Services division, according to a news release.

"When a customer like Prudential Overall Supply makes a substantial commitment such as this, we can give the highest level of after-sales support," said Gabriel Camacho, CLM president. "And by closely tracking real-world use of our machines we can figure out how to make them work even better. Staying close, getting real-time feedback and applying real-world solutions will keep both of us healthy in the long run."

Since 1932, Prudential Overall Supply, Irvine, CA, has established a reputation as a leader in state-of-the-art industrial laundering and cleanroom garment processing. Their close, mutually beneficial relationship with CLM has led to many new CLM dryer design features that improve performance, safety, and ease of operation and maintenance.

"Prudential has for many years worked closely with CLM on many innovations that not only help Prudential but helps the industry overall," said Leonard McAllister, Prudential's senior director of engineering and production. "I like the fact that they listen."

The five-year contract with POS included special pricing and warranty for CLM's standard top-quality industrial dryers, along with specialty dryers used in cleanroom environments.

IRVINE PLANT INSTALLS A NEW DRYER!

On the morning of March 22nd around 10:00 am, Engineering, Jensen Techs and Irvine Plant staff accomplished the "craning in" of a "Brand New Jensen 450 lb. Dryer" through the roof of the Irvine Plant onto an extended mezzanine that had previously held two 450 lb. Dryers.

This is Prudential's first fully automated washroom (2008) and one of the few in the entire country. Last year we added an 800 lb. Jensen Washer to the wash-floor increasing wash capabilities because of the growth due the Irvine Management team. This Dryer addition compliments that growth.

This was an extremely difficult endeavor to be able to add this Dryer in the tight confines of this wash-room, however it was done without any complications. Job well done!

POSITIVE SCORE...

PRUDENTIAL OVERALL SUPPLY RELEASES 2018 CUSTOMER SATISFACTION SCORE

Prudential Overall Supply, an industry leader in reusable image work apparel and related textiles, today announced its 2018 customer satisfaction index (CSI) score. The score is measured through the Company’s Customer Visitation (CV) process. The CV occurs with a face to face meeting with each reviewed customer. The CV rates each customer service touch-point.

Prudential’s Chairman of the Board, Dan Clark comments, “The CV process is our way to better connect to our customers’ requirements, and to verify that we are delivering the customer service experience that we have promised. I personally spend nearly a third of the year conducting CV’s with our management team. It is the most enjoyable part of my year, and it is the time I learn the most about our business.”

Conducting 11,634 face to face Customer Visitations, Prudential achieved a CSI rating of 4.43 on a 5-point scale increasing from a 4.40 the previous year. The Company remains committed to improving on this rating in 2019.
